

MEDIA RELEASE
2 March 2011

New Chair, new Members for Gaming Technologies Association

The Gaming Technologies Association is pleased to announce some important governance and membership changes.

The first announcement involves the rotation of our Independent Chairman, Jamie Odell (CEO and MD of Aristocrat Leisure Limited). Mr Odell oversaw significant change in the organisation, including a major strategic and environmental review which resulted in several important changes.

Incoming Chair, Danny Gladstone (CEO of Ainsworth Game Technology) thanked Mr Odell for his contribution: "Jamie brought stronger analysis and discipline to our governance processes. We appreciate the time and effort he invested to ensure the Association is functioning well" he said.

In addition, Mr Gladstone welcomed 2 new members to the Gaming Technologies Association – Bally Technologies and WMS Gaming.

"Both Bally and WMS are world leaders in the supply of games and gaming equipment for the Hospitality Industry. I'm sure their knowledge and experience will sit comfortably with current Board members and add to the depth of our deliberations and outcomes" said Mr Gladstone.

The Association's full members now include Ainsworth Game Technology, Aristocrat Technologies, Aruze Gaming Australia, Bally Technologies, IGT Australia, Konami Gaming Australia, Shufflemaster Australasia and WMS Gaming Australia. Independent Gaming Pty Ltd is an Associate Member.

Among its other activities, the Gaming Technologies Association operates the Australasian Gaming Expo, held in August each year at the Sydney Convention and Exhibition Centre.
